Ansaldo STS in a consortium for the Ferservizi tender

- Ansaldo STS is part of a temporary consortium of companies created to manage the IT infrastructure of Italian rail operator, *Ferrovie dello Stato
  - Framework contract has a duration of seven years
- Ansaldo STS's activities to be defined with the client on a year-by-year basis with reference to specific executive contracts

Ansaldo STS (STS.MI) is part of a temporary consortium of companies made up of five companies, which has been awarded a seven-year framework contract by Ferservizi (a company of the Italian rail operator, Ferrovie dello Stato), following a restricted tender procedure, with a base value worth a total of EUR 1,365 billion. The contract is to manage the infrastructure for the data processing and the management and development of software applications and call centres for the Italian rail operator, Ferrovie dello Stato.

For its part in the consortium, Ansaldo STS will be responsible for managing and developing applications for traffic control and public information systems; these services will be defined on a year-by-year basis with the customer, Ferservizi, based on their specific requirements with reference to appropriate executive contracts, which will be drawn up in 2011.
